

Lobbying Information

At the present time the Hinsdale Public Library does not engage any specific lobbying service or firm. The Library is involved in membership organizations that engage in lobbying efforts on our behalf. The following shows the organizations of which we were members over the past several years.

2012

Illinois Library Association
American Library Association

2011

Illinois Library Association
American Library Association

2010

Illinois Library Association
American Library Association

2009

Illinois Library Association
American Library Association

2008

Illinois Library Association
American Library Association