

Revenue Sources

For the past four years, between 93% and 96% of the Hinsdale Public Library's revenue has come from property taxes. The remaining sources of revenue include grants, state replacement tax, copier and printer fees, non-resident fees, library fines, lost book replacement fees, and donations.