

Hinsdale Public Library

Social Media Policy

Purpose

The Hinsdale Public Library uses a variety of social software tools to provide a limited or designated public forum to facilitate the sharing of ideas, opinions, and information. Patrons are invited to share opinions about Library-related subjects, resources, and programs.

Postings do not indicate Library endorsement of the ideas, issues, hyperlinks or commentary posted. Additionally, endorsement is not implied via "following," "friending," or otherwise linking to other online entities.

Comments posted to Library-sponsored sites are moderated by Library staff. Patrons are expected to follow the basic rules of civility: comments may not be unlawful, abusive, obscene, defamatory, or threatening. The Library reserves the right to monitor content before it is posted on any social media account, and to modify or remove any messages or postings that it deems, in its sole discretion, to be abusive, defamatory, in violation of the copyright, trademark right, or other intellectual property right of any third party, in violation of any federal or state law, or otherwise inappropriate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Hinsdale Public Library is not obligated to take any such actions, and will not be responsible or liable for content posted by any subscriber in any forum, message board, or other area within the service.

Guidelines

Submissions containing information including, but not limited to, the following are against Library rules and will be deleted before posting or removed by Library staff upon discovery:

- Off-topic comments
- Repetitive posts of the same material that disrupt normal operation of the forum
- Libelous or defamatory comments
- Obscene or profane language or content
- Content that promotes, fosters or perpetuates discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, age, religion, gender, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, national origin, physical or mental disability or sexual orientation
- Sexual content or links to sexual content
- Conduct or encouragement of illegal activity
- Personal attacks, harassment, insults or threatening language
- Hyperlinks to material not directly related to the discussion or the Library
- Information that may tend to compromise the safety or security of the public or public systems
- Content that violates a legal ownership interest of any other party
- Postings of, or requests for, personal information, such as phone number, address, financial accounts, etc.
- Impersonation of someone else
- Commercial messages, including advertisements and solicitations and spam

Violations may result in the restriction of the user's ability to interact with the Library on social media.

Hinsdale Public Library

Social Media Policy

By using this service, patrons agree to abide by the Library Social Media Policy and agree to indemnify the Hinsdale Public Library and its officers and employees, from and against all liabilities, judgments, damages, and costs (including attorney's fees) incurred by any of them which arise out of or are related to posted content. Forums and messaging may not be used for commercial purposes or, unless otherwise specified by the social media site, organized political activities.

If any user does not agree to these terms, he or she is not to use the service, as violation of the terms may lead to legal liability. The Library's Behavior Policy and Internet Access Policy are hereby incorporated in this policy, as well.

Privacy and Ownership

The Library's social media sites may be considered public records. If requested, the Library must disclose public records to third party requestors unless certain exemptions apply. The Library in its sole discretion shall determine whether postings on its social media websites are public records and whether exemptions from disclosure apply.

By posting on the Library's social media sites, you give the Library permission to use your name, profile picture, and the content of any posting you make without notice, compensation, to you or liability on the part of the Library.
