Summer Reading 2024

The Adventure Begins at Hinsdale Public Library

Through Jul. 31

Go on an adventure this summer—and let us be your guide! Whatever your age, you can explore new places and new ideas through reading, and HPL is the perfect place to start your journey.

Kids:

Update your log every time you read for a chance to spin the prize wheel at the Library! If you finish the program, you get a book to keep.

Teens:

Grab an adventure map from the Youth Services Desk to keep track of how many books you've read and collect prizes throughout the summer.

Adults:

Fill out a ticket when you read, listen, watch, or attend Library programs to be entered into a drawing for a weekend at Starved Rock Lodge! You'll also get a treat with each ticket.

Find youth and teen logs at the Youth Services Desk and adult tickets in the Lobby.

See You Outside!

Lunch on the Lawn

Wednesdays, Jul. 17 & Aug. 14, 12:30–1:15 p.m. Burlington Park; drop in

Bring on summer! Grab your kids, friends, and neighbors to enjoy free and fun family entertainment. Bring your picnic blanket, pack a lunch, and see a performance you won't want to miss!

- Jul. 17: Jeanie B! and the Jelly Beans
- Aug. 14: Magic of Gary Cantor

Sponsored by the Village of Hinsdale; in the event of rain, consult the Village's rainout line at (630) 381–4636.

Storytime at Burns Field Park

Wednesdays through Jul. 31, 10–10:30 a.m.; drop in Note: There will be no storytime on Jul. 3

Join your favorite librarians at Burns Field for stories, fingerplays, and music. If it rains, storytime will move to the Library.

Qigong in the Park

Mondays, Jul. 15 & Aug. 19, 11:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m. Please register

Join Dancing Cranes instructor Tom Wilkens to learn the practice of Qigong. We'll meet at the South Picnic Shelter at Katherine Legge Park.

Around Town

All summer long

Look for us at the Fourth of July Parade—we'll once again hand out free books to kids thanks to our Friends of the Library's support. We'll see you at Uniquely Thursdays and the Farmer's Market, too!

Art at HPL

InJung Oh's Spirit of Life

July & August, Quiet Reading Room

InJung Oh is a visual artist who received her MFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2009 and has exhibited widely in Chicago and abroad. She is currently a resident at the Zhou B Art Center and a member of the Arts Club of Chicago. Oh was born in South Korea, immigrated to the US at 13, and now lives in Hinsdale.

Oh creates moments of reflection and balance in the face of a world filled with tensions—gendered, cultural, and spiritual—and explores complicated multiplicities, particularly those pertaining to her identity.

See her work on display through August.

HPL After Dark

Blues Concert on the Lawn with Bear Williams Trio

Sunday, Jul. 28, 6-8 p.m., Memorial Hall lawn; please register

Bear Williams is an award-winning Chicago-based blues artist who has recorded or performed with legends like Mavis Staples, Diana Ross, Little Richard, and Alanis Morissette. This summer, he will perform for us on the Library's lawn!

Bring a lawn chair, grab a snack and a drink (wine, beer, and soft drinks are provided complements of the Friends of the Hinsdale Public Library), and listen to the blues with us. While the concert is geared at adults, children are welcome as well. Thanks to Old Town School of Folk Music for helping select our performer this summer.

Last summer's concert on the lawn featured Ukrainian music and dancing.

Our craft beer tasting was a hit! Thanks to the Friends of the Library, Imperial Oak Brewing, and Kramer Foods for supporting our Spring After Dark event.
