Closing the Book on 2024

2024 was a record-breaking year for Hinsdale Public Library. Thanks to our innovative staff, dedicated volunteers, and most of all, our patrons—the people of Hinsdale—we held more events, engaged with more kids, and served you better than ever before.

Insights from our board and residents were central to the development of our Strategic Plan. This document has guided our growth since 2023, and the results below speak for themselves. You can learn more about our strategic plan at hinsdalelibrary.info/plan.

You Asked, We Delivered!

Some of our strategic goals for the year included:

- More daytime, weekend, and off-site programs for adults: We now offer a robust daytime program schedule in addition to evening events—since Fall 2023, we've hosted 136 daytime programs and 54 weekend and off-site programs!
- More school partnerships: Our librarians reached 3,679 children in classes over the last school year.
- Explore outdoor space improvements: We were proud to partner with the Village to refresh Memorial Hall's plaza space.

Meet Our Kid Librarians

Winter 2025

Next to the fish tank, you may have noticed book displays curated by Hinsdale's "Kid Librarians."

Last summer, these readers applied to share the books they love most with their community. Now, all year long, they have that chance. A big thank-you to HPL's most recent Kid Librarians:

Elexandra

Plays the piano; loves art, fashion, and film; loves classics, like Anne Frank's diary, A Christmas Carol, and Greek myths.

Caleb

Likes math and puzzles; is a LEGO master; reads series like Harry Potter, Dog Man, and Mighty Robot.

Ethan

Is left-handed; plays travel soccer; enjoys board games; likes Frog and Toad, The Lorax, and the Kingdom of Wrenly series.

Maryam

Also a lefty; loves theater, oysters, and the I Survived series. She also enjoys The Baby-Sitters Club and Click series.

Madison

Listens to imagine Dragons; plays basketball; loves to read AND write. Enjoys Harry Potter, I Survived, and Cat Kid Comic Club.

Craft Time

There are plenty of opportunities to get crafty at the Library this Spring.

On pp. 8–9, note our monthly Saturday Stories & Crafts sessions for all ages, monthly Beginner Crochet classes for older elementary schoolers, and our Mini Scientists program in March for younger kids. We also offer Take-Home Crafts every month (with an extra kit in March for spring break).

If that is not enough to satisfy your budding crafter, check out Creativebug on our website's Learning menu. This database has thousands of high-quality videos that will help kids, teens, and adults alike get creative.

LEFT: Over the winter, children made robots inspired by Wild Robot and friendship bracelets inspired by Taylor Swift.

Curiosity Kits

Spark curiosity in science, technology, art, math, reading, music, and nature with our Curiosity Kits for children. Animal lovers will love our backyard Birding and Dog Trainer Kit. Our Game Night Pack and Karaoke Kit provides fun for the whole family. Enjoy a scavenger hunt complete with walkie talkies and a metal detector with the Explorer's Kit. From marble runs to magic tricks to microscopes, we have plenty of things to pique your curiosity!

About Downers Grove Artists' Guild

1941, Tressa Emerson Benson spearheaded a group exhibit of local artists in Downers Grove that became the Downers Grove Artists' Guild (DGAG), which now meets monthly at Downers Grove Public Library. The DGAG encourages artists to explore their talents through participation in a variety of presentations and exhibitions. They also encourage membership of non-artists who love art, providing artist demonstrations and learning experiences for members and the community.

About the Exhibit

DGAG members express themselves through a variety of concepts and mediums, from fully representational to completely abstract. Their unifying force is a drive to be a community of local artists and art lovers who support each others' creative endeavors and instincts to learn and grow artistically.

HCHS Spring Art Show

HPL After Dark

Sake 101:

Exploring Japan's National Drink

Friday, May 9, 7–8:30 p.m.

In this interactive tasting seminar, attendees will learn about the history and production process of sake. We'll enjoy a guided tasting of three different classifications of sake from the Hakutsuru brewery, with emphasis on how the production style affects the flavors and textures of the beverage, as well as suggested pairings for each style.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER: Stella Miller is the current Beverage Director for Chef Paul Virant's Gaijin, a Japanese restaurant specializing in Okonomiyaki, Japanese whisky, and sake. (You may know Paul from his Hinsdale restaurant, Vistro Prime.) A beverage professional with over ten years of experience at Chicago's world-class restaurants (Alinea, Boka, El Ideas, Yugen), Stella has also spearheaded beverage programming for Michelin-starred restaurants with a concentration in Japanese dining.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Hinsdale Public Library with support from Gaijin Restaurant in Chicago.
